HR ACTIVITY PLAN — DAILY WAGE STAFF

Carpenters and Polish Labour | Age Group: 18-55 Years | Kerala Factory

"Our workers are not just labour. They are the craftsmen behind every home we build. Take care of them and they will take care of our quality." — Appletree Interiors

This HR Activity Plan is designed for Appletree Interiors daily wage workforce — carpenters and polish labourers aged 18 to 55. It balances the needs of young workers (growth, energy, recognition) with those of senior workers (respect, stability, health), building a motivated, loyal, and united production team.

Understanding Our Workforce — Age Groups

Age Group	Profile	What They Need	How We Engage
18-25 Years (Young Workers)	New entrants, apprentices, first job, energetic, in learning phase	Skill development, guidance, recognition of potential, sense of belonging	Training, skill competitions, mentorship from seniors, sports activities
26-38 Years (Core Workforce)	Experienced, family responsibilities, financial pressures, career-conscious	Financial stability, respect, growth opportunities, work-life awareness	Welfare support, performance rewards, savings awareness, festival bonuses
39-55 Years (Senior Workers)	Highly skilled, long experience, physically demanding work takes toll on body	Dignity, health support, recognition of experience, reduced physical strain	Senior recognition, health camps, mentor role, task rotation support

SECTION 1 — DAILY ENGAGEMENT ACTIVITIES

These run every single working day and form the culture of the factory floor.

Morning Kickoff — 7:00 AM (5 Minutes)

What	Brief team huddle before work. Dept Head addresses all workers present.
Content	Good morning greeting. One safety reminder. Today's production target announced. Any key updates.
Tone	Energetic, positive, respectful. A team start — not a lecture.
Age Note	Senior workers get a nod of acknowledgement. Young workers encouraged with the day's target.
Responsible	Raees (MOD) / Shafeer (CWF)

Afternoon Check-In — 1:00 PM Lunch Break

What	Dept Head informally checks in with workers during lunch.
Content	How is the task going? Any material or tool issues? Anyone unwell? A genuine human touch.
Age Note	Senior workers (39-55): check physical wellbeing. Young workers: ask if they need guidance.
Tone	Casual and caring — not supervisory during break time.
Responsible	Raees or Shafeer by rotation

Evening Wind-Down — 6:45 PM (3 Minutes)

What	Quick close before tool return and sign-out.
Content	Today's output acknowledged. Good work if targets met. Tomorrow's priority mentioned briefly.
Tone	Appreciation-first. End the day on a positive note. Workers leave feeling respected.
Responsible	Dept Head

Birthday Recognition — On the Day

What	Every worker's birthday acknowledged on the actual day.
How	Afsal maintains birthday calendar. On the day: team claps, Dept Head gives sweet packet or Rs.100 gift. Name announced at morning kickoff.
Cost	Approx Rs.100-200 per birthday. Budgeted monthly.
Age Note	All ages — everyone deserves to feel remembered. This small act builds deep loyalty.
Responsible	Afsal tracks. Dept Head delivers on the day.

SECTION 2 — WEEKLY ACTIVITIES

Safety Minute — Every Monday 7:05 AM

What	One safety topic shared with all workers at Monday morning kickoff. 2 minutes maximum.
Topics Rotate	Machine safety. Hand tool safety. Polish fume safety. Fire safety. Correct lifting. Eye protection. Electrical safety. First aid basics.
Format	Dept Head speaks and demonstrates. Ask: 'Who can tell me what to do if this happens?' Encourage answers.
Age Note	Young workers (18-25) need habit-building — energetic demos work well. Senior workers: acknowledge their experience and invite them to share a tip.
Responsible	Raees or Shafeer — rotate topics each Monday

Worker of the Week — Every Saturday Evening

What	One worker from each department publicly recognised at wage payment time.
Criteria	Best output, best quality, best attendance, or most helpful to team — Dept Head decides each week.
Recognition	Name announced in front of all workers. Verbal praise. Rs.200 cash bonus added to wage slip.
Display	Worker's name on Star of the Week board in factory for the following week.
Age Note	Rotate across age groups over time — ensure young and senior workers both get recognised.
Responsible	Raees or Shafeer nominates. Afsal records. Basith adds Rs.200 to wage slip.

Clean Workplace Friday — Every Friday 6:30 PM

What	15-minute collective factory clean every Friday evening before sign-out.
Tasks	All workers clear sawdust, stack offcuts, wipe machines, organise tool area, mop polish bay.
Why	Builds ownership of the workspace. Clean Monday start = positive mindset and safety.
Fun Element	Fastest and most thorough section gets a treat — biscuits or chai. Dept Head judges.
Responsible	Mohanan leads. All workers participate. Dept Head supervises.

SECTION 3 — MONTHLY ACTIVITIES

Monthly Best Worker Award — Last Saturday of Every Month

What	Formal monthly recognition of top performer in each department.
Scoring	Attendance 30% + Output Achievement 40% + QC2 Pass Rate 20% + Attitude 10% — scored by Dept Head.
Award	Printed certificate with worker name and month. Rs.500 cash bonus. Photo displayed in factory for the month.
Announcement	At Saturday wage payment in front of all workers.
Annual Link	Workers who win 6 or more months are eligible for Annual Star Worker Award.
Age Note	Consider Junior (18-35) and Senior (36-55) categories if team size allows — fair competition for both groups.
Responsible	Dept Head scores. Afsal prepares certificate. Basith processes Rs.500 bonus.

Monthly Team Tea and Snack — First Monday of Every Month

What	Company buys breakfast or evening snack for the entire team on the first Monday of every month.
Format	Chai and biscuits or samosa or banana — simple and inclusive. Shared together on factory floor.
Why	Says: the company values you. Breaks the routine. Builds belonging and team spirit.
Cost	Approx Rs.500-1,000 for full team depending on size.
Responsible	Afsal arranges. Director approves monthly budget.

Skill Tip of the Month — Any Wednesday Lunch

What	One experienced worker shares a craft tip or technique with the team. 10 minutes during lunch.
Examples	Perfect edge band finish. Correct sanding sequence for PU polish. How to cut laminates without chipping. Right clamp placement for glue-up.
Why	Elevates senior workers as knowledge-givers. Young workers learn from real experience. Builds pride.
Age Note	Senior workers (35-55) as presenters. Young workers as active listeners — encourage their questions.
Responsible	Dept Head facilitates. Afsal notes tips in a factory Knowledge Book.

Health Awareness Mid-Month — Notice Board and Kickoff
What	A simple health awareness tip at morning kickoff and posted on factory notice board in Malayalam.
Topics Rotate	Hydration on long shifts. Back and posture care for carpenters. Solvent protection for polishers. Eye care for machine operators. Nutrition on a budget. Mental health and importance of rest.
Age Note	Extra care conversation for workers aged 39-55 — joint pain, fatigue, eye strain noted and flagged to Director for welfare support if serious.
Responsible	Afsal prepares content. Dept Head delivers at morning kickoff.

SECTION 4 — QUARTERLY ACTIVITIES

Factory Sports and Games Day — Once Per Quarter

What	Half-day recreational activity for all factory workers. Games suited for all ages.
Games	Cricket (tape ball). Tug of War. Carom tournament (great for senior workers). Arm wrestling. Fun relay race.
Teams	Mixed: one senior (39+), two mid-career (26-38), one junior (18-25) per team. Builds cross-age bonding.
Prizes	Winning team Rs.200 per person. Certificates for Best Sportsman and Best Team Spirit.
Timing	Saturday afternoon after wage payment or Sunday with one day's wage paid.
Cost	Approx Rs.3,000-5,000 per event including prizes and refreshments.
Responsible	Afsal organises. Director approves date and budget. Dept Heads join as team members.

Quarterly Safety Training — 1 Hour Formal Session

What	Formal 1-hour safety training for all factory workers. One focused topic per quarter.
Q1	Machine safety and PPE — correct use of guards, glasses, and ear protection
Q2	Fire safety and emergency evacuation drill — with actual fire extinguisher demonstration
Q3	Chemical and solvent safety — focused on polish department workers and fume exposure
Q4	First aid basics and accident reporting procedure — hands-on practice
Age Note	Young workers: build safety habits from the start. Senior workers: ergonomics, back care, long-term health of skilled physical work.
Responsible	Afsal coordinates. Dept Heads attend and reinforce in following weeks.

Worker Welfare Open Forum — Once Per Quarter

What	Open session where workers raise concerns, suggestions, and feedback to Afsal and Director.
Format	Informal — all workers seated. Afsal facilitates. Director attends minimum 2 of 4 quarterly meetings. Anonymous suggestion box also available.
Topics Welcomed	Workplace comfort. Tool or equipment requests. Safety concerns. Rest area improvements. Any personal welfare need.
Response	Every suggestion noted. Afsal responds to each point within 1 week — even if not possible, the reason is explained with respect.
Age Note	Senior workers given the floor first — their experience commands respect. Young workers actively encouraged to speak.
Responsible	Afsal facilitates. Director attends. Basith notes financial implications.

SECTION 5 — FESTIVAL AND CULTURAL CELEBRATIONS

Kerala is a multi-religious, multi-cultural state. Celebrating all festivals together builds unity and shows every worker that Appletree Interiors respects their identity and community.

Festival	Approx Month	Activity	Budget Per Worker
Vishu / Kerala New Year	April	Special breakfast or lunch for all. Small cash gift or gift bag.	Rs.200
Eid ul-Fitr	April	Half day off or early close. Sweets distributed. Warm wishes.	Rs.150
Eid ul-Adha	June	Same as Eid ul-Fitr. Half day off and sweets for all.	Rs.150
ONAM	Aug-Sept	Full Onam Sadya. Pookalam. Games. Onam gift bag for every worker.	Rs.500-800
Christmas	December	Cake cutting, decorations, and sweets for all workers.	Rs.200

Diwali	Oct-Nov	Sweet distribution and small celebration.	Rs.150
New Year January 1	January	Good wishes and small token gift for each worker.	Rs.150

■ Onam is the most important event. A full sit-down Sadya with the Director present builds more loyalty than any other activity in the entire year.

ONAM DAY — Appletree's Biggest Annual Worker Event

What	Full-day Onam celebration — the most important company event of the year for factory workers.
Morning	Factory decorated with flowers. Pookalam made together by all workers as a team activity.
Lunch	Full traditional Onam Sadya for all workers and staff. Everyone eats together — no hierarchy at the table.
Afternoon	Fun games: tug of war, carom, cricket, musical chairs. Laughter and bonding.
Evening Gift	Onam kit for every worker: rice, coconut oil, dry fruits, and fabric. Approx Rs.500-800 per person.
Director Role	Yaseen joins for the Sadya and eats with the workers. This single act means more than any bonus to a daily wage worker.
Age Note	Senior workers lead the pookalam — their traditional knowledge respected. Young workers organise games. All contribute.
Total Budget	Approx Rs.15,000-25,000 depending on team size. The single best investment in worker loyalty for the year.
Responsible	Afsal organises everything. Director attends and leads.

SECTION 6 — ANNUAL RECOGNITION AND EVENTS

Annual Star Worker Award

What	The highest worker recognition at Appletree Interiors — one carpenter and one polisher per year.
Eligibility	Minimum 90% attendance + 85% average output + Zero QC failures + No disciplinary incidents.
Award	Trophy or plaque with name and year engraved. Rs.3,000-5,000 cash award. Certificate signed by Director. Photo permanently in factory.
Announcement	At Onam Day or December year-end — Director presents personally in front of all workers.
Age Note	No age restriction. A 52-year-old master carpenter is as eligible as a 24-year-old rising star.
Responsible	Director selects based on Afsal's year-long performance records.

Annual Factory Outing and Picnic

What	One full-day outing for all factory staff — a trip together as a team outside the factory.
Destination	Beach (Kappad, Beypore), hill station (Wayanad), or popular local destination — decided by majority worker vote.
Activities	Lunch together at destination. Group games and photography. Relaxed free time.
Inclusivity	Destination chosen so all age groups, physical abilities, and communities feel comfortable. No alcohol.
Timing	January or February — good weather, after festival season.
Family Option	Once every 2 years invite spouses and children for a Family Day — builds the deepest loyalty of all.
Cost	Approx Rs.500-1,000 per person. Rs.10,000-20,000 total.
Responsible	Afsal organises. Director joins for lunch at minimum.

Annual Craftsman Cup — Appletree Skill Competition

What	In-house skill competition celebrating the best craftsmen in the factory. Takes half a day.
Categories	Best Carpentry Joint. Fastest Accurate Panel Cut. Best Polish Finish on sample board. Best Cabinet Assembly Speed and Quality.
Format	Workers compete within category. Judges: Shafeer, Raees, and Director.
Prizes	1st: Rs.2,000 plus Trophy. 2nd: Rs.1,000. 3rd: Rs.500. All participants receive a certificate.
Age Groups	Junior (18-30) and Senior (31-55) compete separately — fair for both age groups.
Why	Identifies talent for promotion or wage revision. Motivates craft improvement. Creates pride in skill and tradition.
Responsible	Afsal organises. Dept Heads judge. Director presents prizes personally.

Long Service Recognition — Annual
What	Formal recognition of workers who completed significant service milestones with Appletree Interiors.
1 Year	Certificate of Service signed by Director.
3 Years	Certificate plus Rs.1,000 cash gift.
5 Years	Certificate plus Rs.3,000 plus engraved plaque with name and year.
10 Years	Special recognition — significant award at Director's discretion. Permanent display in factory.
Announcement	At Onam Day or December year-end ceremony — public acknowledgement.
Age Note	Primarily benefits workers aged 30-55. Makes long-tenured workers feel truly valued. Dramatically reduces attrition.
Responsible	Afsal tracks joining dates. Basith processes gift amounts. Director presents personally.

SECTION 7 — WORKER WELFARE INITIATIVES

Welfare is what separates a good employer from a great one. These initiatives cost relatively little but create deep loyalty — especially among workers aged 35-55 who have families and long-term concerns about health and financial security.

Annual Health Camp — Once Per Year

What	Free basic health check for all factory workers. Conducted at or near the factory.
Tests	Blood pressure. Random blood sugar. BMI and weight. Basic eye check. Dental if available.
Partner	Tie up with local clinic, government health initiative, or medical college camp for low or zero cost.
Age Focus	18-25: General health and eye care. 26-38: Blood sugar and BP. 39-55: Joint health, BP, blood sugar, eye strain — critical for 12-hour physically demanding shifts.
Follow-Up	Afsal reviews serious findings privately. Director sponsors treatment support for genuine cases through Emergency Welfare Fund.
Cost	Free via government program or Rs.200-400 per worker with a private clinic.
Responsible	Afsal coordinates. Director approves budget.

Emergency Welfare Fund

What	A company-funded emergency support for workers facing genuine personal crisis.
Triggers	Worker hospitalised unexpectedly. Death of immediate family member. Natural disaster affecting worker home. Serious medical expense.
Support	Rs.2,000-5,000 as a welfare gift — not a loan. Based on situation assessed by Afsal.
Process	Worker informs Dept Head. Afsal verifies. Director approves. Basith disburses within 24 hours.
Fund Size	Director sets aside Rs.20,000-30,000 annually. Unspent amount carries forward.
Responsible	Afsal maintains fund register. Director is the sole approver of every disbursement.

Rest and Comfort Area

Minimum Required	Proper seating for lunch break. Cool drinking water all day. Clean toilet facility. Hand wash station near polish area.
Good Additions	Fan and ventilation in rest area. Malayalam newspaper or magazine. Phone charging point. Radio for light music at lunch.
Why	Workers doing 12-hour physically demanding shifts deserve a dignified rest space. Senior workers especially need proper seated rest between tasks.
Maintenance	Mohanan responsible for daily cleanliness. Afsal checks standards monthly.
Responsible	Mohanan maintains daily. Afsal oversees.

Financial Literacy Session — Once Per Year
What	Simple practical 30-minute session on money management for daily wage workers. Fully in Malayalam.
Topics	How to save even on daily wages. Benefits of bank account and UPI over cash. PF and ESI awareness. Simple family budgeting. Avoiding money lenders.
Age Note	Especially valuable for young workers (18-25) who are just starting to earn. Senior workers may want savings and retirement perspective.
Responsible	Basith leads. Afsal organises. Invite bank representative if possible.
